"Paper under disposal"

These papers relate to the application of Mr. E.H. Wallace, M.A., I.C.S., Judge of the Chief Court, for the grant of one month's privilege leave in continuation of the ensuing summer vacation of the Chief Court.

2. A doubt having arisen as to whether Mr.Wallace might be allowed to combine the privilege leave earned by him in British India with the annual vacation allowed to the Judges of the Chief Court in Mysore, the matter was referred to the Government of India through the Residency. A reply has been received from the First Assistant to the Hon'ble the Resident.-vide, his letter No.2186 dated 7th April 1913. The Government of India consider (i) that the question whether Mr.Wallace shoul be allowed to combine privilege leave with vacation is one that may be left to the discretion of the Durbar and that there is no objection to his being permitted to do so provided that the work of the Chief Court can be satisfactorily arranged for;(ii) that the amount of such leave should be limited to one month; and (iii) that in respect of the privilege leave which was at Mr.Wallace's credit on his transfer, he should be allowed the salary which he would have drawn from Imperial revenues if he had taken leave before his transfe

3. Mr. Wallace has expressed his willingness to take the leave applied for subject to the conditions specified in the Residency letter referred to above.

Pages 9 & 10 of Notes

4. The First Councillor recommends the grant of the leave in continuation of vacation and states that the acting appointment in place of Mr. Wallace may be made with effect from the date of the opening of the Chief Court, viz., 16th June 1913.

5. The privilege leave of absence for one month in continuation of the vacation applied for by Mr. Wallace may be sanctioned. Proposals for making the necessary acting appointment in his place will be separately submitted in due course.

There will be a vacancy for a months of a Dist Judge's place in Bangalore during Mr Justice Wallace's leave. Mr D.M. Narasinga Rao Senior cannot be spared. Both Mr Nagappa & Mr Subbanna are still acting sub Judges.

I believe the choice has to be out of messrs Rajaratna Mudaliar, Aravamudan Iyengar, B. Rameswaraya & D'Souza. None of them have any adequate experience. Could you kindly let me have your opinion? I am not yet certain whether any of the three latter can be spared. I shall take further action after I hear from you

Submitted to His Highness.

In Government Notification No. 3358/Cts. 160-12-10 dated 5th May 1913 Mr. Wallace, Judge of the Chief Court, was granted privilege leave of absence for one month in continuation of the annual vacation of the Court, that is, with effect from the 16th June 1913. Acting arrangements have now to be made in place of Mr. Justice Wallace.

2. I discussed the question with the Councillors who agree with me that the senior District Judge, viz., Mr. T. Paramasiva Iyer who has acted as a Judge of the Chief Court on a former occasion, may be appointed to act during Mr. Wallace's absence.

3. In place of Mr. Paramasiva Iyer, it is proposed to appoint Mr. Rajaratna Mudaliar, Registrar of the Chief Court, to act as District and Sessions Judge of the Bangalore Division. The Councillors are agreeable to this arrangement which will satisfy the exigencies of the occasion.

4. Mr. D.M. Narasinga Rau is the senior among the Sub-Judges who have had experience of judicial work, but it is not possible to spare him now without dislocating work in the Secretariat in this busy season.

5. Mr. Basavaradhya, Deputy Registrar of the Chief Court, may be appointed to act as Registrar of the Chief Court during the employment of Mr. Rajaratna Mudaliar on other duty.

6. These arrangements have the approval of the Chief Judge who was demi-officially consulted by the First Councillor.

I have the honour to request that I may be allowed to proceed home during the vacation of the Chief Court, and avail myself of privilege leave for one month in continuation of that vacation.

In the matter of leave, I am, I believe, subject to the leave rules in force in the Madras Presidency. I last returned from leave on 29th November 1910 and have not availed myself since that date of any leave of any kind. Consequently on 14th June 1913 on which date the vacation of the Chief Court ends, I shall be eligible for privilege

SIR,

With reference to your D.O. letter No. J.2007 dated 15th January 1913 regarding the amount of privilege leave that will be to the credit of Mr. Wallace, Judge of the Chief Court of Mysore, I have the honour to submit herewith copy of my letter No. 4969/G.A.D.380 dated 29th January 1913 to the Accountant-General, Madras, and of his reply to it. The Accountant-General considers that a reference is necessary on the subject to the Government of India whose orders may therefore be obtained.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

COMPTROLLER.

M.B.

Copy of letter No.4969/G.A.D.380 dated the 29th January 1913/ 1st February 1913 from the Comptroller to the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, Bangalore to the Accountant-General Madras.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No.G.A.55/18849 dated 18th January 1913 stating that under article 260, Civil Service Regulations, the amount of privilege leave at the credit of Mr. E. H. Wallace on the 28th June 1912 was one month and 21 days.

2. The Mysore Chief Court Vacation begins on 14th April and ends on 14th June. Mr. Wallace has enquired what privilege leave there will be to his credit on 15th June next, apparently with the object of availing himself of such leave in continuation of the vacation. There appear to be no rules in the Civil Service Regulations exactly applicable to Mr. Wallace's case which is of this description. He is a member of the Indian Civil Service and prior to his transfer to service under the Mysore Government, was holding the position of - Officiating District and Sessions Judge, Nellore. In Mysore he is now holding the office of a puisne judge of the Chief Court. The question is what rules govern the privilege leave admissible to him in the circumstances of his service before and after his transfer to foreign service in Mysore. On the analogy of a similar transfer - under the Government of India the rules to be applied to the case are perhaps those that would have been applied had Mr. Wallace been - transferred from his position as an Officiating District and Sessions Judge to the Bench of the Chief Court of the Panjab or of Lower Burma. If this supposition is right, Mr. Wallace's case is subject to all -, the restrictions imposed by the note under article 554, Civil Service Regulations. These restrictions would, however, apply only to the privilege leave earned by Mr. Wallace as a judge of the Mysore Chief Court but on the date of his transfer he had to his credit privilege leave for one month and twenty one days earned under the conditions of article 278, Civil Service Regulations or 260, Civil Service Regulations as stated in your letter of 18th January 1913.

On

On the 15th June next he will have to his credit a period of privilege leave, portions of which will have been earned under different conditions and the point for decision is what rules should govern his case, what amount of privilege leave he can take, what allowance, if any, is payable for the period of leave and whether such leave can be combined with the Mysore Chief Court vacation of two months. I shall feel much obliged for information on all these points.

The salary of Mr. Wallace as Officiating Judge of the Chief Court of Mysore is Rs.1,500/- with an allowance of Rs.500/- per mensem and if he had been an officer of the Mysore Service, he would have come under the local rules which allow to judges of the Chief Court privilege leave under the ordinary rules subject, however, to the condition that the leave allowance is limited to half salary.

The favour of an early reply is requested.

Copy of letter No.G.A.55/20820 dated the 15th February 1913 from the Accountant-General, Madras to the Comptroller to the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, Bangalore.

In reply to your letter No.4969/G.A.D.380 dated 1st February 1913, I have the honor to state that Mr. Wallace is an officer of the I.C.S., and contributes towards leave and pension; as such, he is under articles 750 and 782 of the Civil Service Regulations, governed by the leave rules for the I.C.S., while on foreign service and not by the leave rules applicable to the office under British Service corresponding to his office under the Foreign employer. Such an interpretation of article 782 could not have been contemplated as the appointments may not always be similar.

2. Mr. Wallace is therefore eligible for privilege leave (on full salary) under the ordinary rules for the I.C.S., and as he is no longer a District and Sessions Judge in British Government, he cannot claim to combine his privilege leave with the vacation of the Chief Court of Mysore.

3. As the matter, nowever, is not free from doubt, it may be referred for final decision to the Government of India, at whose disposal the services of the officer are placed for employment as a puisne Judge of the Mysore Chief Court and the decision communicated to me for information.

Sir,

I am directed to state that Mr. E. H. Wallace, Judge, Chief Court of Mysore, has applied for a month's privilege leave from the 15th June 1913 with permission to avail himself of the Summer Vacation from the 14th April to over.

to 14th June 1913 both days inclusive.

2. It is reported that Mr. Wallace had, before his transfer, ~~at his credit~~ privilege leave for 1 month and 21 days at his credit earned under the provisions of article 278 or 260 of the Civil Services Regulations of British India; and after joining the Mysore Service he will on the 1st June 1913 ~~became~~ be entitled to privilege leave for one month on half pay under the provisions of the Mysore Service Regulations. The points for consideration now are (1) what rules should govern his case (2) what amount of privilege leave can he can take, (3) what is the allowance that will be due to him during the period, and (4) Whether his such leave can be combined with the Vacation of the Chief Court.

3. The Accountant General of Madras, who was consulted by the Comptroller in Mysore, states that as Mr. Wallace is an Officer of the Indian Civil Service and contributes towards his leave and pension while on foreign service, his case comes under articles 750 & 782 of the Civil service Regulations & is governed by the leave rules for the I.C.S. that he is eligible for privilege leave (on full salary) under the ordinary Rules for the I.C.S., and that as he is no longer a District & Sessions judge in British India, he cannot claim his privilege leave to be combined with the vacation of the Chief Court of Mysore.

4. He further adds that as the matter is not free from doubt, it may be referred for orders, to the Government of of India at whose disposal the services of the officer ~~are~~ were placed for employment in foreign service. I am to request therefore that you will be so good as to move the Hon'ble the Resident to kindly refer the matter to the Govt of India & to communicate their decision to the Durbar as early as convenient. at a very ~~early date~~, as ~~Mr Walker has to make necessary arrangements~~ to leave the station on the 16th April 1912 in case his request is granted.

Dated Bangalore, 7th April 1913

Sir,

With reference to Mr. Srinivasa Iyengar's letter Pol. No. 775, dated the 11/12th March 1913, regarding the privilege leave for a month applied for by Mr. E.H.Wallace, Judge, Chief Court, Mysore, I am directed to state that in view of the terms of the Mysore Service Service Regulations, the Government of India consider (1) that the question whether Mr. Wallace should be allowed to combine privilege leave with vacation may be left to the discretion of the Darbar and that there is no objection to this being permitted provided that the work of the Chief Court can be satisfactorily arranged for ; (2) that the amount of such leave should be limited to one month; and (3) that in respect to the privilege leave which was at Mr. Wallace's credit on his transfer he should be allowed the salary which he would have drawn from Imperial revenues if he had taken that leave before his transfer.

I am to state that for privilege leave, if any, granted to Mr. Wallace hereafter in excess of that to which he was entitled on transfer the Government of India observe that his allowance might suitably be limited to half his salary in foreign service.
